

May 18, 2010

Dear Sophomore Parents for 2010-2011,

Below is a list of novels and plays which your sophomore son or daughter will require for American Literature next year. (This is not summer reading). These need to be purchased over the summer so that the students are ready to begin in August. They may be purchased at the local book stores, on line, or from this year's sophomores. The reason that this is vital is because book stores have run out of copies in the past during August which creates a problem. Failure to have these books when class begins will result in the loss of points.

The Taming of the Shrew	William Shakespeare
The Scarlet Letter	Nathaniel Hawthorne
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn	Mark Twain
The Great Gatsby	Scott Fitzgerald
Of Mice and Men	John Steinbeck
Julius Caesar	William Shakespeare for Honors and Pre-Ap only

Thank you,